

January 24, 1974

SENATOR SIMPSON: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk which reads to adjourn until 10:00 a.m. Monday for the sake of those who are talking about Tuesday. I would move to amend my own motion to 10:00 a.m. Tuesday morning and see where we go from there. But they can go back to the original motion if they so wish.

PRESIDENT: Is there any other business to come before the body, at this time. The Chair would like to clear this up and then we will see where we are.

CLERK: I have a notice of Executive Board meeting for Public Health and Welfare for 10:00 Friday. Of an Executive session, correction.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Stromer for what purpose do you rise? The motion now before the house is to adjourn until 10:00, Tuesday. Is there any objection to Senator Simpson amending his adjournment motion to that time? All right, then the motion actually before us is to adjourn until 10:00, Tuesday. And that is really not debatable, but Senator Stromer did you have input in regard to that adjournment time? Senator Syas your light is still on. O.K. Senator Syas did you have something more you wanted to say in the discussion. Is there any further discussion then necessary in regarding the adjournment of 10:00, Tuesday. Senator Carpenter back to you, what is your pleasure.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I want it to be the understanding that the committee hearings go on. That we will only saving I hope one Legislative day. And I hope the press will make that clear that the hearings will still be going on as scheduled.

PRESIDENT: If there is no further business then, to come before the body, then the motion before us at this time is to adjourn until 10:00, Tuesday. All those who support that motion will vote aye, all those opposed will vote no. The motion is to adjourn until 10:00, Tuesday. A simple majority is required. The motion is to adjourn until 10:00, Tuesday. And the chair would inquire if you have all voted. Once again, have you all voted? We are adjourned until 10:00, Tuesday. The Chair votes aye. Just a minute. Senator Luedtke, O.K. Senator Whitney. Stand by please.

SENATOR WHITNEY: The Committee on Committees will meet at 800 Tuesday morning to hear, Mr. Matzke, and Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Burrows.

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner, did you want to be recognized? O.K. We are adjourned until 10:00 Tuesday.